

Chelsea win the Barclays Premier Reserve League title

The stars of the future were in action last night at Stamford Bridge in the final of the Barclays Premier Reserve League, which saw Chelsea's reserves crowned champions.

Hundreds of Barclays colleagues were provided tickets and hospitality for the match and saw the excitement of a 5-4 penalty shootout, after scores were level at 1-1 during normal time.

Barclays delivered a full presentation ceremony for the Barclays Premier Reserve League champions, mirroring what will happen in the main league this Sunday, 22 May.

Tickets to Barclays Premier Reserve League matches are available to Barclays colleagues free of charge each season by sending a request to Annelise.Rowe@barclayscapital.com
